EARTH TONES

A bathroom trend that is not surprising considering how popular the wood and white look has been in homes in recent years, wood finishes are a must-have in any bathroom. Earthy-inspired shades have been in vogue for some time and are here to stay. Maison Valentina created the NAZCA vanity cabinet with its matte walnut root veneer structure, vintage brass matte base, and marble sink to add elegance and exquisiteness to every bathroom.

CURVED LINES

The curve line is making a big appearance in interior design. People are in love with soft lines that feel like a warm, comfortable, and cozy space after a long day. The curve can be found in architecture such as doorways, windows, cabinet designs, and bathtubs, as well as in patterns such as fabrics and tile designs. The Symphony bathtub is an example of a curved piece inspired by music that adds a touch of luxury and comfort to any bathroom design. The gold-plated brass tubes add glamour, elevating this bathtub to a higher level of interior design. The tub is made of white fiberglass and has a clean appearance that is ideal for any luxury bathroom.

BLACK AND METAL COMBO

Bathroom designs that combine black and metal are one of the 2022 trends that will give your bathroom a new look. The use of black and metal creates an elegant and clean atmosphere, which is essential for any luxury bathroom design. This combination can produce such amazing results that can turn a simple bathroom design into a luxurious and elegant space, creating a perfect refuge.

DARIAN BATHTUB

The exquisite leather Darian Bathtub and the strong statement of the Shinto Vanity Cabinet, this private sanctuary provides a soothing ambiance combining black with golden touches.
