

BATHROOM TRENDS FOR 2021: MARVELOUS MARBLE

Maison Valentina believes that there is something very luxurious about the combination of marble in bathrooms, considering that this noble material can fill spaces with exclusivity and magnificence.

During the past years, this material has stood out in the world of interior design, through different products such as washbasins and bathtubs, given its sharp, clean and natural appearance, which provides visual interest to any house division.

Therefore, the brand has selected some of the most incredible products with marble, to show that this material is the most elegant finish to use in a bathroom design.

Products: Koi Freestanding, Origin Mounting Floor Mixer Tap, Cross Grey Surface and Koi Towel Ring

Petra Bathtub, inspired by the ancient city of Petra, is the living-proof that sometimes just a tiny bit of marble is enough to make all the difference. The design combines Ibiza marble and wood, turning the bathroom into a more classy and sophisticated division.

Products: Petra Bathtub, Victorian with Hand Shower Tap, Ring Rectangular, Koi Round Vessel Sink and Diamond Wall Mixer Tap

Metropolitan Washbasin, with a rectangular sink in Nero Marquina marble, is the perfect addition to a darker bathroom, blending the contemporary chic urban attitude with the classic sober lines. When contrasted with some beautiful light fixtures and a wooden structure, it will create a dramatic yet harmonious appearance.

Products: Metropolitan Washbasin, Lenox Mirror and Darian Towel Rack

This washbasin from Symphony Collection, features a structure in polished brass and a countertop all made of marble, giving a touch of luxury and irreverence to any bathroom project.

Products: Symphony Washbasin, Victorian Two Hole Mixer Tap, Eden Towel Rack, Brubeck XL Wall Lamp and Florence Stool

No matter the type of combination or style, this noble material will fill any environment with a majestic feeling, making it so easy to fall in love with a bathroom design.
