MAISON VALENTINA ELEVATES THE BATHROOM EXPERIENCE

at M&O 2019

Paris has never been so beautiful! 2019 is starting and the world's foremost event for professionals of the lifestyle, interior design and design industries will show the trends for this new year and the power of a certain 'je ne sais quoi'.

For Maison Valentina, this will be a perfect opportunity to share the news for this special year. "We want to be on top of mind for all the interior designers and professionals of bath projects and we believe that our presence in this type of event is crucial", says Sérgio Oliveira, Sales Manager.

LUXURY BATHROOMS

Maison Valentina combines luxury design while offering functionality to one of the most important spaces of any project, and this participation on Paris will show exactly this.

"We know that bathroom is the most intimate space of any project, and we know we deserve to be part of that. We want to show the je ne sais quoi that Maison Valentina has and how we have managed to turn any bathroom project into a unique design space."

ATO Collection is going to be another surprise: a collection that gathers four product solutions that will allow every professional choose one or multiple components and assemble them as they wish, personalizing the bathroom space and through small details and changes.
